PEOPLE PLACE
LEARNING LIFESTYLE

Welcome to a compelling selection of up to 20 different activities and adventure pursuits to be enjoyed outdoors in Ireland's most distinctive of landscapes. Whether you seek a rush of adrenalin or a restful escape, come join us in this natural wonderland.

In the stunning surrounds of the UNESCO-recognised Burren and Cliffs of Moher Geopark you will find the longest cave system in Ireland, the largest stalactite in Europe, the Burren National Park, the Carron Nature Reserve, and a host of wild flora and fauna waiting to be discovered either on foot, from a kayak, in the saddle, behind an easel or even from a ridge.

The best way to discover the Burren is in the company of a knowledgeable and professional guide, who will delight in sharing the secrets, mysteries, scents and silences of this beautiful and dramatic landscape with you. The vast range of outdoor activities on offer means that there is something suitable for all interests and all levels of fitness.

Your next adventure is just around the corner!

BURREN OUTDOOR ACTIVITY & ADVENTURE is a joint initiative of the Burren & Cliffs of Moher Geopark and the Burren Ecotourism Network. Both organizations are committed to the promotion of responsible tourism that conserves the environment and improves the well being of local people, and are working together to promote 'The Burren & Cliffs of Moher Geopark' as a leading sustainable visitor destination, celebrated for high standards in visitor experience, conservation and learning.

1. Adventure Burren

Come with us and experience the Burren like we do. Our aim is to ensure you enjoy your time with us. All activities are tailored to suit you and you don't need to be super-fit! We are Ecotourism Ireland certified and we offer quality adventure activities with people who care about what they do. Our rock-climbing experiences will bring you to the mountains and coastal crags of the Burren while our hill-walking guides will take you off the beaten track to see ancient monuments, wallscapes and an amazing variety and density of wild flowers. Max 8 persons per activity.

2. Aillwee Cave & Birds of Prey Centre

Birds of Prey Centre welcomes visitors to The Burren in County Clare. Our family gives your family a chance to explore its weirdly shaped underworld, to enjoy the majestic Birds of Prey and hone essential survival skills in our woodland craft village. Hear and feel the beat of a falcon's wing as it swoops. Smell the earthy dampness of a long dried up river bed decorated with twinkling crystalline formations. Challenge yourself by testing your aim or learning how to make fire. Indulge in the tasty rewards of smoky cheese or sweet fudge.

Getting Here & Getting Around

The Burren & Cliffs of Moher Geopark App is an up-to-date visitor directory of all activities and services in the region. It includes information on all public and private transport options e.g. bus routes, taxis, bicycle hire, car pooling. It also provides mapping and directions to all locations and premises in the area.

Useful information for travelling responsibly to and within the Geopark can also be found on www.burren.ie/getting-here

Principles

Plan ahead and prepare
Be considerate of others
Respect farm animals and wildlife
Travel and camp on durable ground
Leave what you find
Dispose of waste properly
Minimise the effects of fire

Practicing a Leave No Trace ethic is very simple:
Make it hard for others to see or hear you and LEAVE NO TRACE of your visit

The members of the Burren Outdoor Activity & Adventure Trail

are bound by their commitment to building a sustainable future for the region.

They are also committed to providing quality adventure and activity experiences, to the highest standards of safety and instruction, which you can enjoy in the company of qualified, experienced and professional guides.

An International Treasure; A Local Way of Life

'Global Geopark' is a UNESCO recognised designation, awarded to regions with outstanding geology and unique cultural heritage. In the Burren and Cliffs of Moher Geopark you will find an internationally acclaimed landscape, forged by nature and humans, where cultural traditions co-exist with contemporary life.

Geoparks are places where people live and work in a protected landscape. We take great pride in working together to balance conservation with the need to support livelihoods.

Geoparks provide not only beautiful and inspirational landscapes to explore, they also give visitors many opportunities to engage with local life. In our Geopark trained and accredited local hosts provide a genuine and entertaining experience of our place and our culture.

Geoparks put great emphasis on learning and education. We give visitors opportunities to learn more about our place through festivals, publications, visitor centres, geosites, guided activities and social media.

We are very proud of the UNESCO recognised Global Geopark designation. To maintain the designation we must continue developing our region in ways that are good for our landscape, good for our community, and good for you, the visitor.

We invite you to stay a while, explore, discover and enjoy our special place.

The Geopark Team
Clare County Council.

We are located at the perfect mid-way point on Ireland's Wild Atlantic Way, the longest coastal touring route in the world. So whether you're travelling northwards or southwards along the west coast of Ireland, the Burren & Cliffs of Moher Geopark is the ideal place to stop and linger. Let us take you on your own journey of discovery to experience the Burren, fondly known as 'The Fertile Rock'. Starting from any of the Wild Atlantic Way Discovery Points along our coastline, we can offer you a chance to get to know award-winning food producers and chefs, and to select from the best of accommodation choices, along with spectacular cycling and walking routes as well as adventure activities in the sea, on the sea and on land. Our celebrated geological heritage includes many natural wonders, most famously the dramatic Cliffs of Moher and the awe-inspiring limestone landscape of the Burren uplands. We are proud to welcome you to a truly special place. Welcome to the Fertile Rock!
